FOREWORD

What lies beyond a closed door—something vital? promising? unexpected? No one knows until the door is opened.

The entrance to high school is a beckoning to a new world—a vital world of education, a promising world of opportunity, and an unexpected world of new friendship. All this awaits those who venture to open the closed door.

FACULTY

SISTER MARY CLAUDIA

Although Sister Mary Claudia is completing her first year as principal of Marymount High School, she remains a dedicated teacher at heart. The class of '64 will remember her working not in the office, but in the classroom.

What was the secret of this teacher's great power? I believe it was His intense love for THOSE He taught—thorough preparation in WHAT He taught—and unlimited charity WHEN He taught.

—T. D. Bailey

Indeed, teaching is a vocation which enables a person to give part of himself to his students. An educator imparts a wholesome attitude toward life by opening the door to intellectual maturity. However, a Catholic teacher not only aims to direct the reason, but also attempts to motivate the mind toward Christocentric concepts.

Some tasks, small as they may seem, play an important part in the efficient functioning of a school. The service and sacrifice of a few dedicated individuals make possible the performance of these tasks.

ACTIVITIES

ACTIVITIES LEAD TO THE DOOR OF MATURITY

At Marymount each activity is designed for the benefit of the students. Through spiritual endeavors, studies, school organizations, and socials, each student develops attitudes, culture, leadership, and poise.

The chapel is always open—for personal visits or specific rituals, such as the blessing of the Advent wreaths.

FURTHERING SPIRITUAL

Each First Friday finds the entire student body present in the gym for the dialogue Mass.

Marymount's religious ceremonies center around devotion to the Blessed Sacrament and Mary. Participation in these exercises instills a more ardent love for the spiritual.

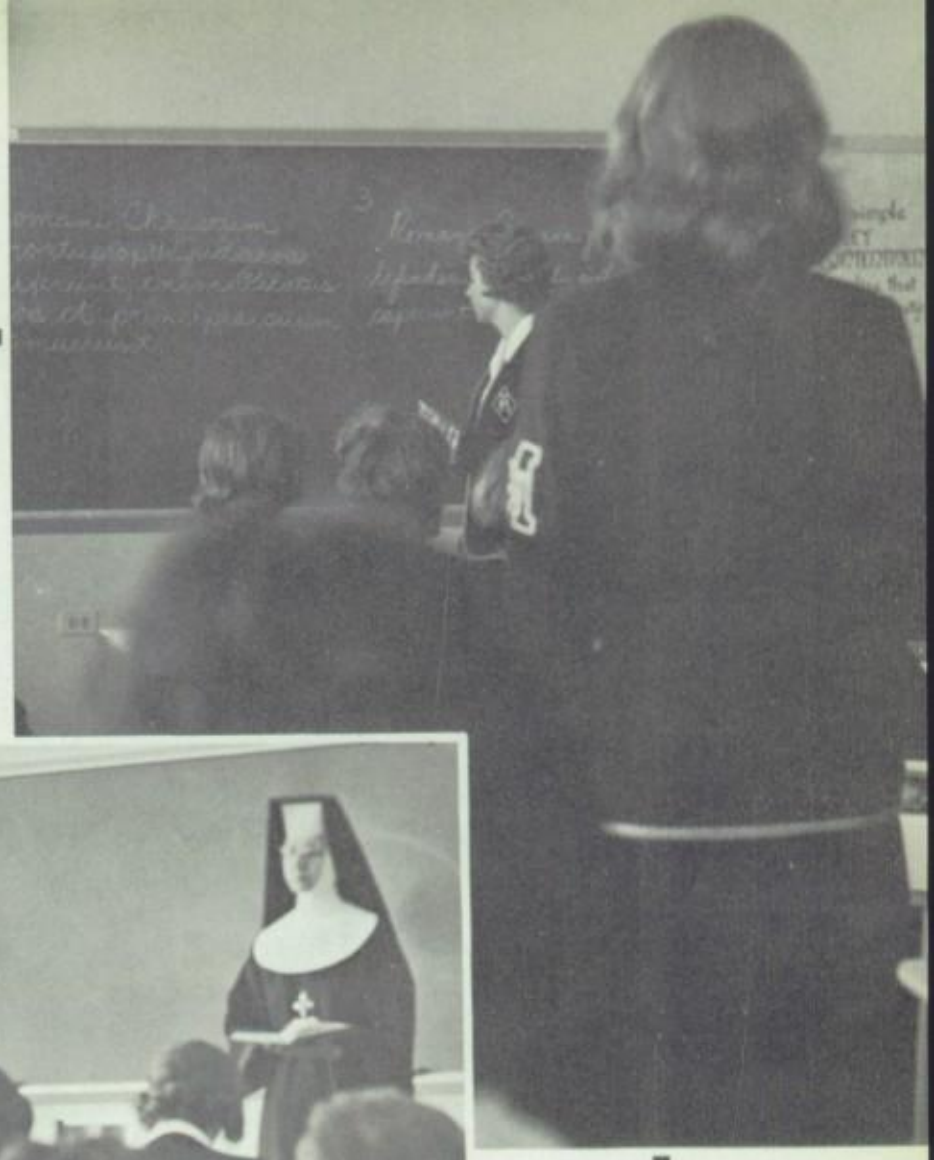
DEVELOPMENT

The procession of the Christmas Bride and her attendants highlights the Christmas festivities.

COLLEGE CALLS

The academic courses of Marymount offer a minimum of two majors and two minors. Each girl's schedule is "tailor-made" to fit the standard college requirements.

For academic students, the study of math and the sciences is an essential mental discipline.



English and Latin play an integral part in the college course.

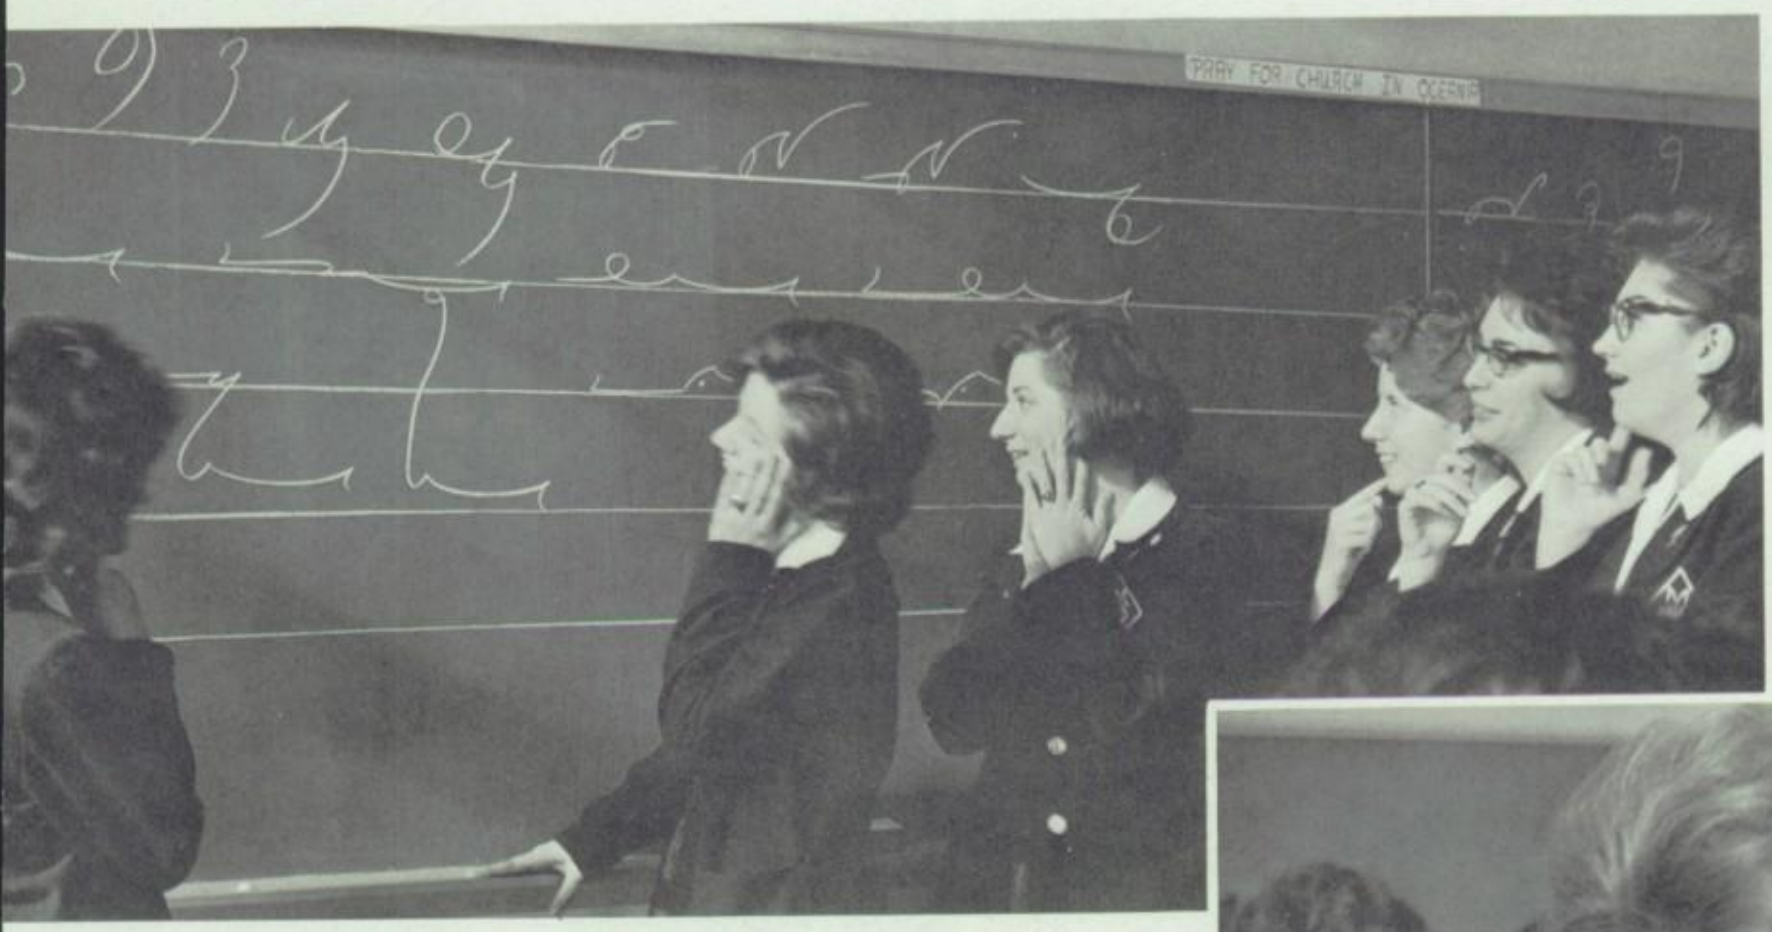
Students become bilingual and gain a better understanding of other peoples through a working knowledge of French and Spanish.

BUSINESS

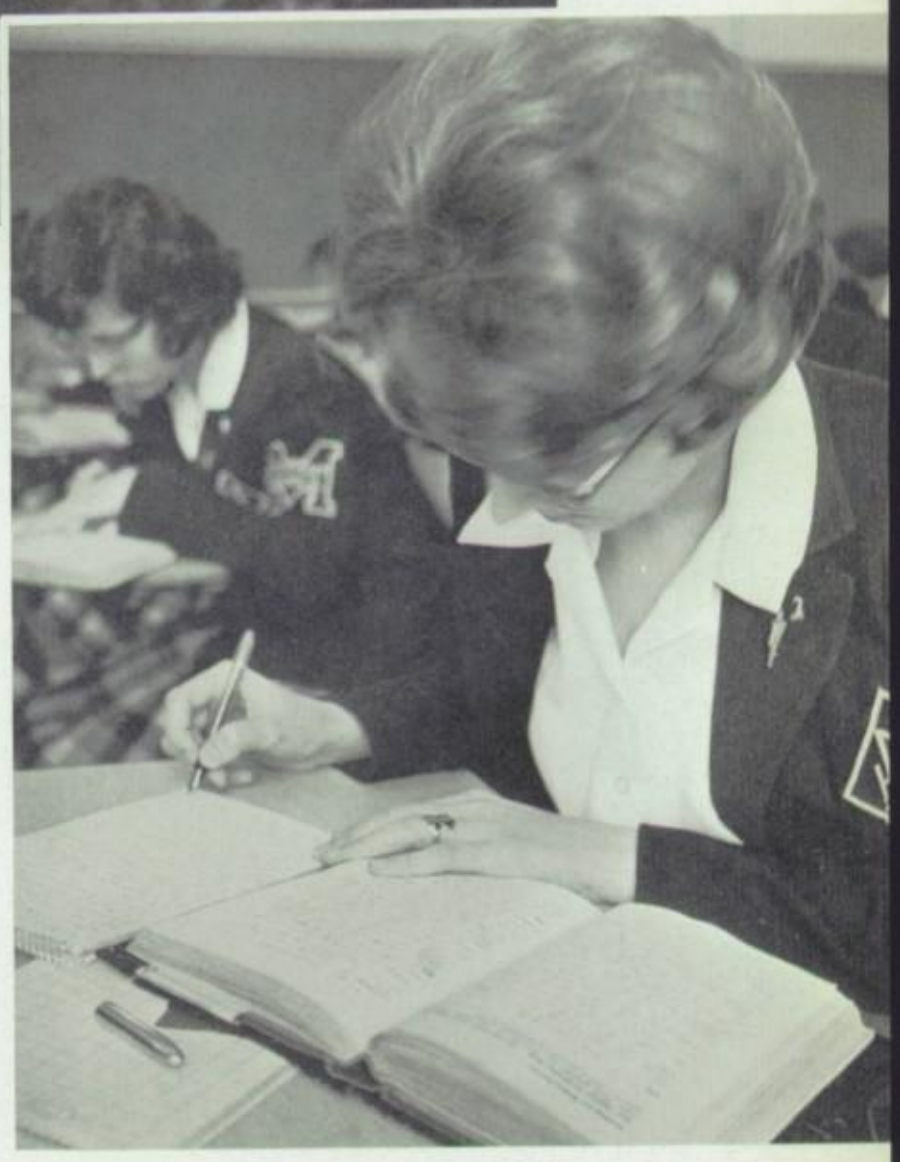
Bookkeeping requires concentration, accuracy, and proficiency.

General office practice, including typing and clerical work, gives the potential secretary the necessary training in office routine.

WORLD BECKONS . . .



"Just plain confused" describes these shorthand students. However, daily practice soon dispels perplexity.



Commercial courses provide opportunities to gain valuable knowledge and to develop a wide appreciation of the practical principles in the business world.

ENCOURAGING

Fashioning garments to coincide with the season enables the student to become "clothes conscious."

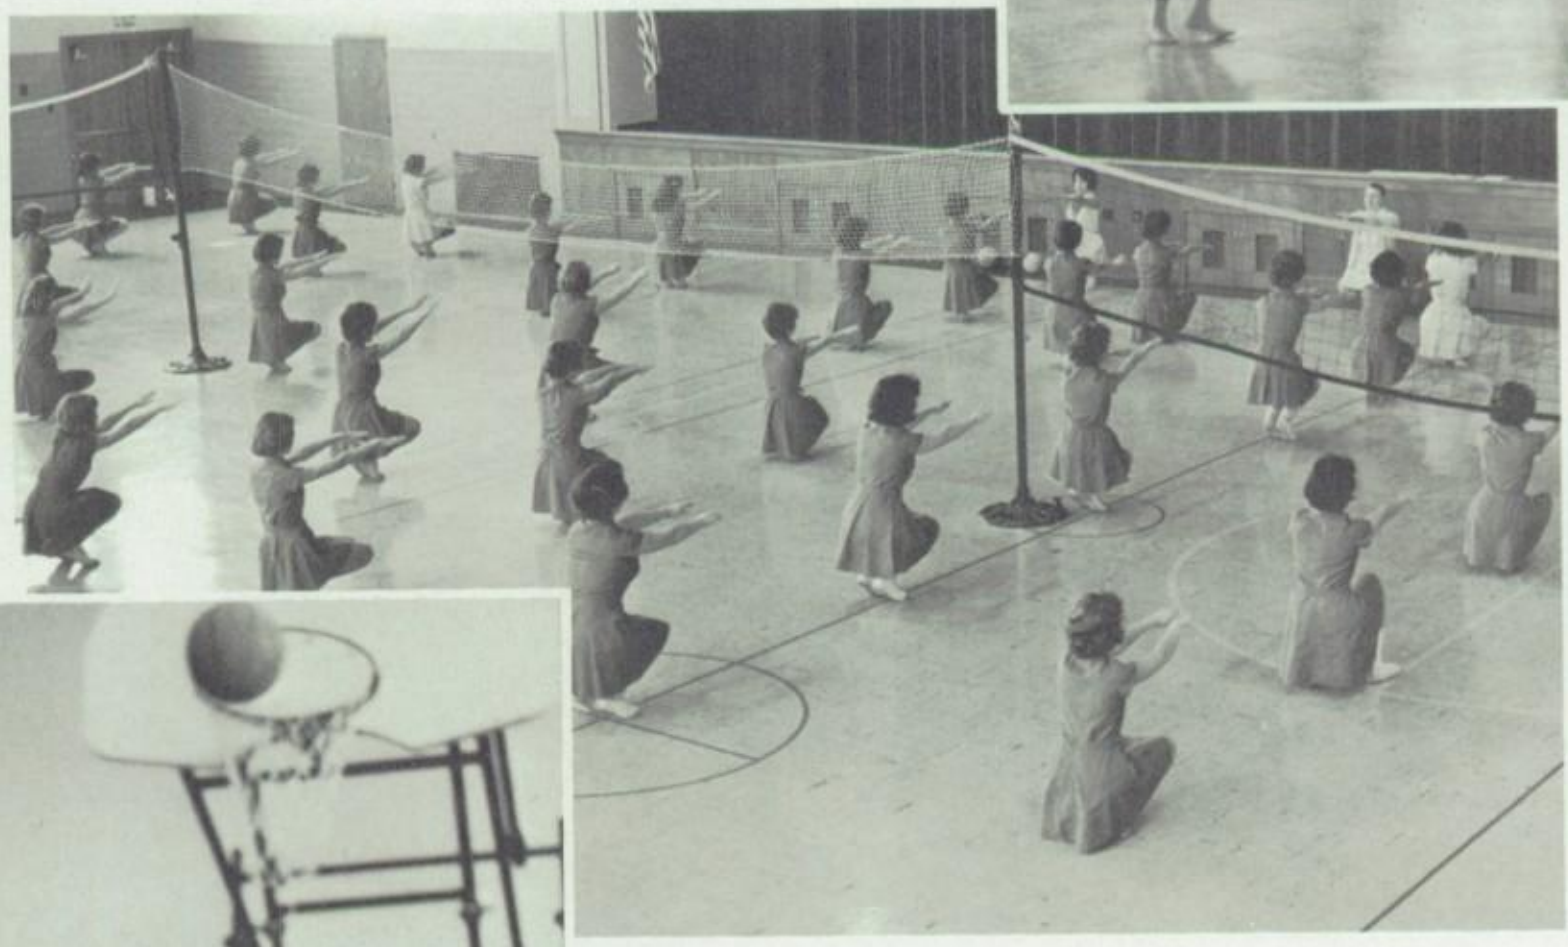
Art class gives the individual the opportunity to express herself through various media.

The choral group develops a sense of harmony and co-operation which leads towards successful performances.

CREATIVE ABILITIES

The art of homemaking prepares the homemaker "to make a house a home through love."

Developing skills helps to make a well-rounded individual. Through work in the practical arts, the ingenuity and talent of the student are brought forth.



Physical education classes strive to perfect bodily skills by having students engage in sports and exercises.

MARYMOUNT MERRIMENT

Students always manage to find time for fun and games, be it during a homeroom Christmas party or an "informal" before-class discussion.

Family participation in cultural and athletic functions encourages "togetherness."

"All work and no play makes Mary a dull girl." If there are any dull girls at Marymount, it is their own fault because they have many opportunities to get together with friends and have fun.

Borrowing title and decorations from the French, the Senior Dance, "Au Revoir," officially began the social events of the school year.

STUDENT COUNCIL

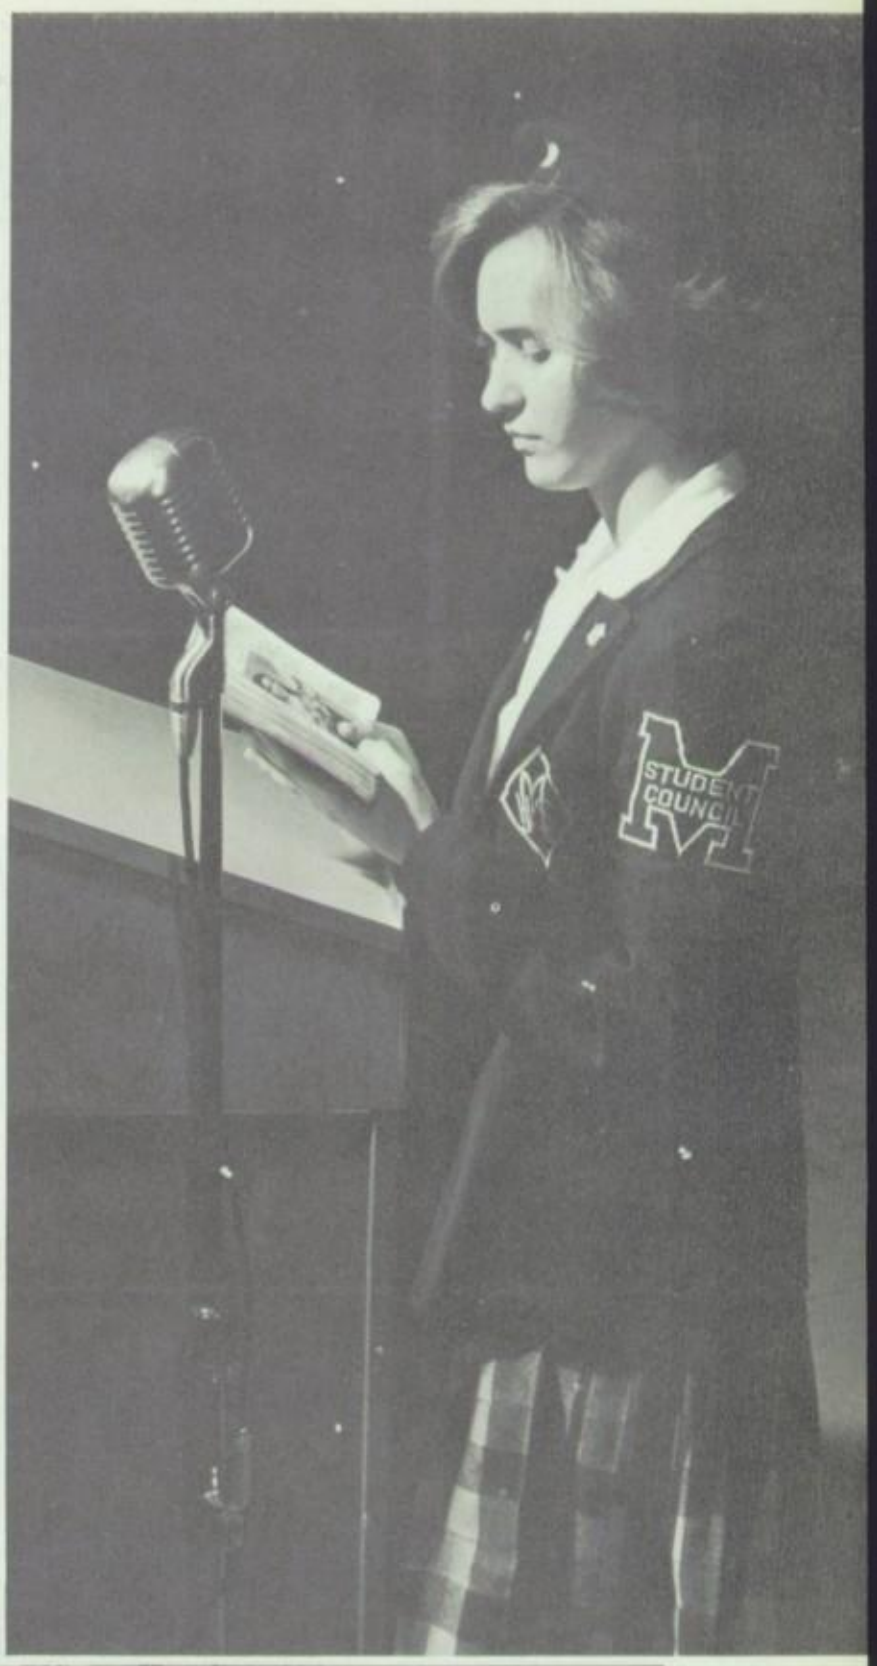
As leaders of the school, the members of the Student Council co-operate with the faculty in maintaining order and creating good student-teacher relationship.

OFFICERS: Loreen Sekerak, Pamela Kubek, Virginia Stellmah, Joyce Vavro.

SODALITY OF OUR LADY

The Sodality dedicates itself to Mary. Its purpose is the sanctification of its members accomplished through daily spiritual duties and Apostolic works. These activities coupled with the May Crowning and Living Rosary, have for their aim an enrichment in the spiritual life of the Sodalists and the student body.

OFFICERS: Kathleen Wolf, Lynn Miklovic, Mary Ellen Pelcin, Elaine Pekarek.



MARIAN PLAYERS

Throughout the school year, the Marian Players work to produce entertaining performances. The teamwork of the stage and lighting crews together with the student ticket sales contributes to the many successful productions.

OFFICERS: Ernestine Cale, Linda Sliwinski, Dorothy Markiewicz, Sharon Sopko.

THE MARIAL

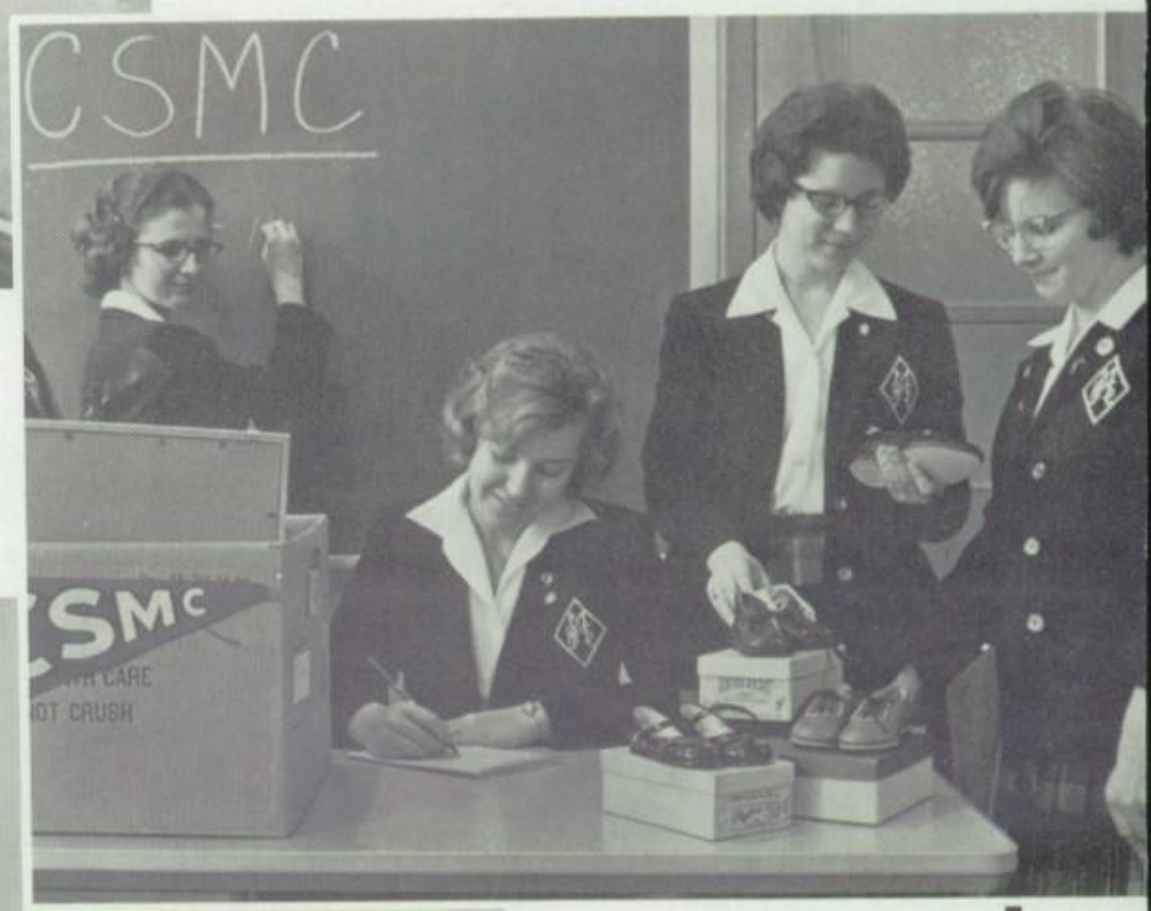
There is never a dull moment in the Marial's "journalism closet." Giving credit to outstanding students and presenting educational and entertaining articles make the newspaper a service to its readers and an asset to the school.

EDITORS: Lynn Miklovic, Frances Novak, Katherine Henderson, Christina Kwiecien, Beverly Bernard.

CSMC

Under the patronage of St. Therese, the Catholic Students Mission Crusade, better known as the CSMC, studies social and economic problems as they affect the Church and the world. This organization also helps its members realize the importance of the mission crusade in modern times.

OFFICERS: Angela Andreatta, Edwina Zawistowski, Barbara Stipetich, Therese Beer.



GOOD COUNSEL CLUB

The Good Counsel Club acquaints its members with the various aspects of religious life. Through panel discussions, speakers, and question-answer sessions, this organization encourages much-needed vocations.

OFFICERS: Barbara Adam, Susan Shoaf, Mary Lou Kingzett, Constance Single.

THE MARYVUE

To capture the spirit of Marymount, the members of the Maryvue staff devote their time to the careful planning of the annual memory book. The various committees attempt to produce a publication which calls to mind vivid memories of the past school year.

EDITORS: Barbara Stipetich, Eugenia Rabbitt.

COPY: Rita Conti (editor), Francille Polk, Rita Kellermann, Mary Reville, Karen Janus.

LAYOUT: Angela Andreatta (editor), Charlotte Reda, Kathleen Foster, Mary Ann Rauckhorst.

PHOTOGRAPHY: Marsha Mostek (editor), Carol Haida, Virginia Nowac, Karen Kaucheck.

TYPISTS: Marilyn Cassel, Marian Bayrus, Cheryl David, Venice Roman, Darlene Proch.

GYM LEADERS

By focusing their attention on physical fitness, the members of the Gym Leaders Club are able to direct the underclassmen toward a better appreciation of a sound body. Participation in various sports helps the Gym Leaders to learn fair play and good sportsmanship.

OFFICERS: Kathleen Vinson, Janene Nemeth, Mary Sue Valent, Dolores Synecky.

LIBRARY CLUB

The members of the Library Club devote their time and energy toward an efficiently run book-lending system. These student librarians aid in shelving, locating, and signing out books.

FSA

For those considering a future career in the world of science, the Future Scientists of America Club offers opportunities to explore ideas beyond the textbook through lectures, movies, tours and fairs.

OFFICERS: Jane Tucek, Roseann Belock, Jacqueline Pojedinec, Betsy Patton.

JUNIOR RED CROSS

Under the auspices of the National Chapter, the sophomores and freshmen of the Junior Red Cross function in a purely voluntary capacity. Projects such as the collection of toys for needy children and work in hospitals and blood mobiles constitute a mere fraction of their service.

OFFICERS: Paula Bastic, Lucinda Evans, Sandra Goetz.

FNA

For one who plans a career in nursing, Marymount offers membership in the Future Nurses Club. The knowledge gained through volunteer work and guest speakers enables potential nurses to prepare for this profession.

OFFICERS: Rosemary Hronek, Jo-Ann Campagna, Kathy Nowakowski, Patricia Pason.

BUSINESS CLUB

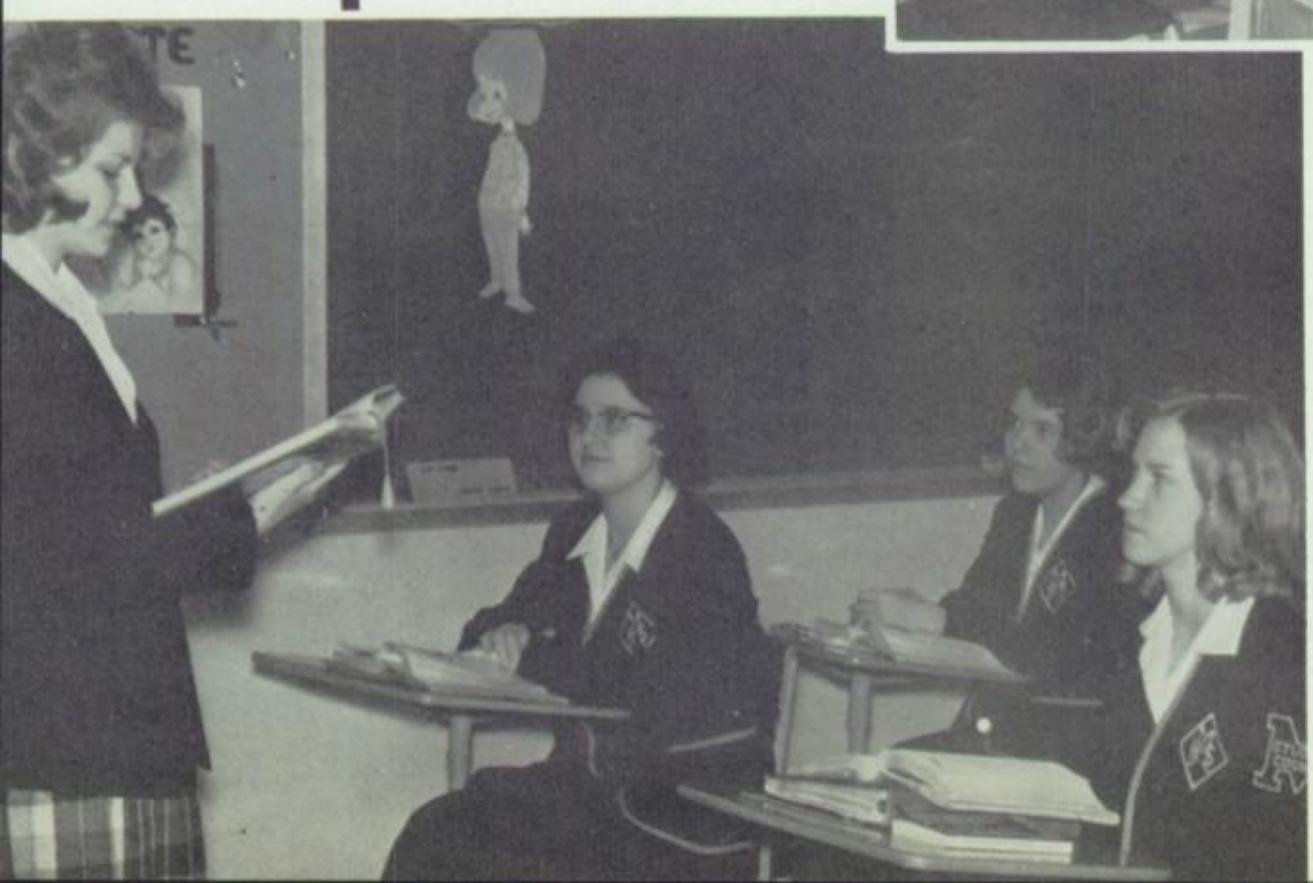
The Business Club, one of the newest additions to the after-school curricula, acquaints its members with various career fields. Projects develop an understanding of the many responsibilities of the business world and further the spirits of cooperation and integrity—important traits for the success of any job.

OFFICERS: Carol Chernicky, Sally Schlekie, Susan Kolenic, Elaine Fasko.

JCWA

"World affairs are your affairs." This motto echoes the purposes and ideals of the Junior Council on World Affairs. Affiliated with the adult Cleveland Council, the members of the JCWA delve into the causes and effects of current world problems.

OFFICERS: Cheryl Mentkowski, Rita Conti, Lenore Lesczynski, Joyce Colnar.



FTA

A member of the Future Teachers of America organization is exposed to the many facets of a teaching career. Correcting papers, acting as teachers' aides and substitutes, and attending topical discussions give these "future teachers" an insight to teaching as a full-time job.

OFFICERS: Maryanne Drongowski, Bernadette Bryll, Karen Klemencic, Jacqueline Baldyga.

UNDERCLASSMEN PASS
THROUGH THE DOORWAYS OF MARYMOUNT

Freshman Induction, Sophomore Day, and the Junior Ring Ceremony comprise the traditions which the underclassmen await. The lit candles . . . the class colors and flowers . . . the shiny new rings . . . all lie beyond the open doors at Marymount.
